

Call for Applications

Seconded National Expert(s)

EIT (Budapest)

Ref.: EIT/SNE/2018/132

The European Institute of Innovation and Technology (EIT) is an independent EU body set up in 2008. We enhance Europe's ability to innovate by nurturing entrepreneurial talent and supporting new ideas. Our mission is to:

- Contribute to the competitiveness of Europe, its sustainable economic growth and job creation by promoting and strengthening synergies and cooperation among businesses, education institutions and research organisations.
- Create favourable environments for creative thoughts, to enable world-class innovation and entrepreneurship to thrive in Europe.

The EIT is an integral part of Horizon 2020, the EU's Framework Programme for Research and Innovation. Horizon 2020 is a key pillar of the Innovation Union – a Europe 2020 flagship initiative that aims to enhance Europe's global competitiveness.

The EIT is now organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list for Seconded National Experts (SNEs) supporting the EIT in relation to the management of its Innovation Communities and contributing to the development and coordination of Innovation Communities' horizontal initiatives run by the EIT.

The initial period of secondment may not be less than six months or more than two years. The place of employment will be Budapest, where the EIT Headquarters are located.

More information about the EIT, its structure and activities can be found at: <http://eit.europa.eu>.

1. The Job Profile

Working under the supervision of the Head of Unit, the Seconded National Expert (SNE) will be part of either one of the following core operational units of the EIT, namely the 'Innovation Communities' Unit, the 'Strategy and Impact' Unit or the 'Communications and Stakeholder Relations' Unit. The SNE will also be required to work in close co-operation with other EIT units, the EIT Director and Governing Board, and maintaining other stakeholders could also be an important component of his/her duties.

The Innovation Communities Unit is primarily responsible for supervising, monitoring and assessing the portfolio of activities of existing KICs. To further enhance its impact and to incentivise the innovations needed to meet new societal challenges, the EIT plans to gradually expand its portfolio of its 6 EIT Innovation Communities (KICs) to 8 from 2018 to 2020. KICs address major societal challenges by fostering innovation.

The themes to be addressed by the 8 KICs are:

- Climate change mitigation and adaptation
- Digitalisation - Future information and communication society
- Sustainable energy
- Healthy living and active ageing
- Raw materials - sustainable exploration, extraction, processing, recycling and substitution
- Food4Future - sustainable supply chain from resources to consumers
- Added-value manufacturing
- Urban mobility

The Strategy and Impact Unit is leading EIT's strategy development across its main domains including education, business creation and innovation agendas. The Unit conducts reviews, evaluations and assessments. The Unit works on the analysis and evaluation of economic and societal impacts of the EIT and its Knowledge and Innovation Communities' (KICs') and engages in activities to enhance the impacts of EIT. The Strategy and Impact Unit is leading the development of the EIT Regional Innovation Scheme, the EIT Awards, the EIT Alumni programmes and the implementation of the principles on KICs' Financial Sustainability and KICs' strategies for financial sustainability.

The Communications and Stakeholder Relations Unit is responsible for the EIT's external Communications activities, engagement with the EIT's internal and external Stakeholders, as well for the provision of policy and strategic advice to the EIT Director in developing and implementing the EIT's communication and stakeholder engagement strategy. It furthermore supports the analysis of potential synergies of and complementarities with other EU/ national/ regional innovation support mechanisms offering scope for alignment at EIT and/or Innovation Community level. It is responsible for further developing and implementing a strategy for increased visibility of the EIT and the EIT Community as a whole, including through stakeholder-specific collaboration schemes such as the “EIT Stakeholder Forum”. Moreover, it provides the interface for relations with Third Countries and international organisations.

Tasks

Depending on the assignment to one of the operational units mentioned above, the SNE should contribute to the EIT’s work in the above areas by carrying out the following tasks and activities:

- Manage EIT Innovation Communities in their set-up phase, in assessing their annual Business Plans and amendments, in partnership management and supporting the process of allocation of the annual EIT grants and their monitoring and evaluation;
- Provide input to consultations, questions and queries put forward by the Innovation Communities and promoting cross-KIC collaboration in cross-cutting areas of particular relevance for the fulfilment of the EIT mission;
- Liaise with EU and national level stakeholders regarding thematic and innovation policy discussions and representing the EIT in meetings with relevant stakeholders;
- Support the implementation of the EIT’s communication strategy;
- Prepare, develop and implement EIT strategies in different domains, based on the EIT’s Strategic Innovation Agenda (SIA);
- Contribute to the analysis and assessment of results and impacts of the EIT’s and its Knowledge and Innovation Communities’ activities;
- Develop and coordinate Innovation Communities’ horizontal initiatives run by the EIT;
- Stay current of the landscape of innovation, education, entrepreneurship and research policies and programmes from a strategic point of view and assess and recommend strategic opportunities;
- Contribute to the financial and operational management in the area of responsibility, including procurements, implementation of contracts, payments and reporting;
- Contribute to the achievement of the EIT’s objectives through inputs to horizontal coordination activities, teamwork, proactive internal communication and inputs to the work of colleagues in other units.

2. Eligibility Criteria

2.1 General Conditions

Seconded National Experts (SNEs) are staff members – employed by a national, regional or local public administration, or an IGO – who are seconded so that the EIT can use their expertise in a particular field. ‘Public administration’ means all state administrative services at central, federal and regional level, comprising ministries, government and parliament services, the courts, central banks, and the administrative services of local authorities, as well as the decentralised administrative services of the State and of such authorities. The secondment of an SNE by an employer other than a national, regional or local public administration or an IGO should be authorised only on a case-by-case basis, once it has been ascertained that the SNE's employer is part of the public sector or is an independent university or research organisation that does not seek to make profits for redistribution.

By the closing date of this call candidates must:

- be either a national of a Member State, of an EU candidate country, an EFTA country or a country with which the European Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement with the Commission on staff secondments¹;
- enjoy their full rights as citizens²;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed by national laws concerning military service;
- meet the character requirements for the duties involved;
- be physically fit to perform their duties³.

The Seconded National Expert must have worked for their employer on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before their secondment and shall remain in the service of that employer throughout the period of secondment. The current employer must support the candidate, maintain his/her administrative status and must commit to pay his/her salary during the secondment. The SNE's employer shall also continue to be responsible for all his/her social rights, particularly social security and pension.

¹ Candidates who do not fulfil these conditions can also apply. If, upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, a candidate who does not fulfil these conditions is among those who achieved the highest scores in the pre-selection screening (see 5.3), the EIT Director has the right (as per Article 1(3) of the attached EIT Decision) to approve a derogation to invite the candidate to an interview.

² Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a certificate clean criminal record.

³ Before being engaged, an SNE shall be medically examined by one of the European Commission's medical officers.

The specific and binding rules and conditions on the secondment of National Experts to the EIT are set out in Decision 20/2015 of the Governing Board of the EIT.

2.2 Education

Candidates are required to have

- a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least four years attested by a diploma, or
- a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of a least three years attested by a diploma together with an additional year of relevant professional experience.

Only qualifications issued by EU Member State authorities and qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant EU Member State authorities will be accepted.⁴

2.3 Experience

To qualify for secondment to the EIT, candidates must have, at the closing date for applications, professional experience of at least six years⁵ (at least seven years in the case of completed university studies of less than four years).

As part of the above professional experience, candidates must have at least three years of experience in an administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory function/s that can be regarded as equivalent to function groups AD as defined in the Staff Regulations of the Officials of the European Communities and in the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities⁶.

⁴ In case of qualifications issued by authorities outside EU Member States, the proof of recognition of equivalence by the relevant EU Member State authorities must be specifically mentioned in the online application form under 'Additional information'. In case of invitation to an interview, the above proof must be provided.

⁵ Professional experience will be counted from the date on which the applicant acquired the minimum qualification for access to the profile in question. Only duly documented professional activity (i.e. remunerated employment or self-employment) is taken into account. Part-time work will be taken into account in proportion to the percentage of full-time hours worked. Periods of education or training and unremunerated traineeships are not taken into account. Fellowships, grants and PhDs can be counted as professional experience up to a maximum of 3 years. Any given time period can be counted only once (e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period of the former).

2.4 Language Skills

As the predominant working language of the EIT is English, candidates must therefore have a thorough knowledge of English. (Note: Native English speakers will be required to demonstrate the ability to work in a second EU language at interview stage). Candidates must also have satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the European Union⁷. An SNE from a non-EU Member State must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his/her duties⁸.

3. Selection criteria

3.1 Assessment on paper at application screening stage

Essential criteria⁹:

- At least two year's work experience in managing projects under an international, EU and/or nationally funded programme in the areas of research, innovation, education or business support.

4. The Selection process

How to apply

Please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website at <https://eit.europa.eu/collaborate/careers> which contains detailed instructions to help you submit your application correctly.

Only applications submitted through the EU CV Online system¹¹ will be accepted.

To apply, you must register in the EU CV Online system via the link provided on the EIT website, and follow all instructions concerning the various stages of the procedure. Candidates are kindly invited to complete their application in English in order to facilitate the selection procedure. Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

In the letter of motivation, please highlight the key work experience relating to each of the selection criteria listed in section 3.1 of this vacancy notice.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy Internet traffic or a problem with the Internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before you complete it, thereby obliging you to repeat the whole process. Once the deadline has passed, you will no longer be able to register.

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required later from candidates invited to an interview (see section 5.2).

On completion of your online registration, you will receive on screen a registration number, which you must note. Once you receive this number, the registration process is finished. This will be your reference number in all matters concerning your application. Please note that if you do not receive a number, your application has not been registered.

An acknowledgement of your application will be sent to the e-mail address indicated in your application. It is your responsibility to verify that you provide the correct e-mail address.

Deadline for applications: 12 November 2018 (13:00 Budapest time)

5. Steps of the Selection Procedure

5.1 Screening of applications

After the deadline for online registration, the Selection Board will check the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria described in section 3.1.

The Selection Board will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in section 1 as per the selection criteria set out in section 3.1.

5.2 Interview

Upon completion of the profiles' evaluation, typically up to a maximum of the 12 most suitable candidates for the post - based on the highest scores in the pre-screening - will be invited to an interview, which will be organised in Budapest. Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to the candidates in due time.

Candidates invited to an interview will be requested to submit by email, prior to the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

The Selection Board will carry out an assessment of candidates invited to an interview according to the selection criteria described in section 3.2. The interview and the written test will be conducted in English. Any other languages indicated in the application form might be tested. Note: native English speakers will be tested to prove their second language skills (as stipulated in 2.4 Language skills).

Candidates may also be required to sit a written test in English on the day of the interview.

5.3 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The application of candidates invited to the interview will be checked against supporting documents provided, in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

Candidates will also be disqualified if they:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.4 Reserve list

The Selection Board will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a reserve list which is submitted to the Appointing Authority of the EIT for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2019. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority of the EIT. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the EIT (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the EIT. Moreover, recruitment will be subject to budgetary availability.

5.5 Information

The text of this Call for applications contains all the information required. Nevertheless, if you have a question, please consult the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website. If you have further questions, please contact the EIT via jobs@eit.europa.eu, clearly mentioning the reference of the vacancy notice, your registration number and the nature of your request.

Candidates will be notified as to the outcome of their candidature. Further information can be found in the Guide for Applicants at <https://eit.europa.eu/collaborate/careers>.

6. Additional Important Information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The EIT applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

6.2 Selection Board

A Selection Board will be appointed to carry out the evaluation of applications submitted in relation to this vacancy. Please note that the Selection Board's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden, and may lead to disqualification from the selection process.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take a few months to be completed; further information about the status of the procedure will be published on the EIT website.

6.4 Recruitment conditions / Career

Successful candidates may be offered a contract as a Seconded National Expert, in accordance with Decision 20/2015 of the Governing Board of the EIT for an initial period that may not be less than six months or more than two years. The secondment may be renewed once or more up to a total period not exceeding four years for reasons linked to the interest of the service.

6.5 Conditions of employment

Candidates should, before applying, assure themselves that their employer will support the candidacy and pay their salary during the period of secondment.

An SNE shall be entitled, throughout the period of secondment, to a daily subsistence allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance:

- a daily subsistence allowance shall be based on the amount applied by the European Commission for Brussels, taking into account the correction co-efficient applicable to Hungary which is set by the Council pursuant to Article 64 of the Staff Regulations, and
- a monthly subsistence allowance shall be based on the amounts applied by the European Commission for Brussels, taking into account the correction co-efficient applicable to Hungary which is set by the Council pursuant to Article 64 of the Staff Regulations.

These subsistence allowances shall be granted under the same conditions¹² as the expatriation allowance for temporary staff employed by the EIT.

On the date of publication the amounts applied by the European Commission for Brussels are:

Daily subsistence allowance: €138.15

Monthly subsistence allowance:

Distance between the place of origin/of recruitment and the place of secondment in km	Amount in euros
0-150	0
> 150	88.80
> 300	157.86
> 500	256.55
> 800	414.42
> 1300	651.23

¹² Article 4 of Annex VII to the Staff Regulations and the provisions implementing this Article shall apply mutatis mutandis.

> 2000	779.52

The above amounts are weighted by applying a correction coefficient applicable to Hungary¹³. Payment shall be made to each SNE at the place and in the currency of the country where the SNE carries out his duties or, at the request of the SNE, in euros in a bank within the European Union.

6.6 Independence and declarations of interest

The job holder will be required to enter into a commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to his or her independence.

6.7 Means of Redress

Candidates considering that their interests have been prejudiced in the selection process by a particular decision may request a review of, or launch an appeal against the decision adversely affecting them. More detailed information about the means of redress can be found in the Guide for Applicants on the EIT website.

6.8 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the EIT ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.
